UNITED STATES CONGRESS

Memo from David Schweikert

June 5, 2017

Arizona

On May 22nd, the party bosses at the Democrat Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) announced their "battlefield expansion" to include Arizona. The angry left is going on offense. They are recruiting candidates and investing heavily in our community. I already have one opponent.

The DCCC has made me one of their top targets for 2018.

That means I am going to need a lot of help to keep Arizona's conservative values protected in Congress.

Please help me fight back!

Your immediate support will provide the needed help to protect the seat that, together, we have fought so hard to protect.

Every 24 hours, protests are being organized in our community.

The left is determined to disrupt and disorganize. They are organizing new groups every single day and investing big resources neighborhood-to-neighborhood across Maricopa County:

Be on the lookout.

Groups called "Resistance," "Stronger Together," "Indivisible," "We Are the People," and "We feel the Bern" are far left front groups determined to inflict the kind of violence that we have seen before.

These groups believe that even Bernie Sanders and Elizabeth Warren are too moderate. They drive a radical social agenda and will stop at no turn to "clash with police," "incite violence," "light cars on fire," "incite mass arrests," "and use women, children, and families to mass confusion."

Like you, I am troubled to see this kind of behavior.

Already this year, we have seen that the extreme left and their allies in the media are willing to stop at nothing to spend whatever it takes politically. In Georgia, the seat vacated by Secretary Tom Price has gone down as the most expensive congressional race in our country's history, exceeding $30 million dollars.

To George Soros or Barack Obama, that may be small change. To you and me, it's a dangerous movement that is taking our country in the wrong direction. That is exactly why we need to stick together and fight back. The far left is attacking me, and I need your help!

The far left is taking no prisoners this year. They smell blood in the water.

...Defeating you and me is how they intend to win.

Union bosses have handpicked a challenger to take me on this cycle.

From Fountain Hills to Scottsdale, Carefree, Cave Creek, Paradise Valley, and Phoenix — groups are organizing their political attacks.

They are going door to door and working with party bosses to coordinate message.

I am in big trouble if conservatives don't rally together to help me.

Nancy Pelosi has her marching orders. She laid it right out in her grand strategy: "DCCC OFFENSIVE BATTLEFIELD: CHARGING FORWARD..."

The far left is sounding the bugle call loud and clear:

- The organized left needs to "start cracking the surface beneath the Republican majority."
- Engage small dollar fundraising.
- "Proactive engagement with allies on the ground, so that democrats can win in the midterm."

The far left will spend whatever it takes to put Bernie Sanders and Elizabeth Warren at the head of their party.

In order to keep this seat in conservative hands, I need your urgent support!

Your immediate reply comes at a time when I need to know that I can count on Arizona to help me fight for our shared values.

We have a long road ahead, as we fight to protect the gains we have made — and we cannot risk losing them by allowing "the surface to crack," as union bosses think they can do.

Don't think for one second that our liberal opponents — and my handpicked challenger — will take it easy on us. They fully intend to bring the full strength of the angry left down on us in order to defeat me. Please stand strong against them and lend me whatever level of support you can today so that I can fight back!
